

New Venture Business Plan

Background/History of New Venture:

1. History and formation, legal organization (C corporation, LLC, partnership...)
2. Team, qualifications of team members, and critical roles of each member of the team
3. JPL Employees
4. Non-JPL Employees
5. Stake that employees have in New Venture

Background and analysis of market(s) that New Venture will operate in (as applicable)

1. Size of market, state of the existing services and products in the market, how market is changing
2. Market opportunities, and strategy for New Venture to tackle such opportunities
3. New Venture's unique strengths and capabilities to exploit market opportunities
4. Competitive analysis – strengths and weaknesses of competitors for existing and future new products

Strategic Plan for New Venture's Products and Services (as applicable)

1. New Venture's products and services and how they will address market needs and opportunities, overcoming competitors' advantages with its team, products, and services
2. Envisioned customers of New Venture and why such customers will need New Venture's products and services
3. Sales strategy for New Venture
4. Strategy for New Venture to drive adoption of its products/services/technology in the face of existing and future alternatives given its scarce resources
5. Exit opportunities – why New Venture would be an attractive acquisition or IPO

Challenges (as applicable):

1. Technical Challenges
2. Potential weaknesses of New Venture (e.g. scarce resources), and how to address/hedge
3. Execution challenges
4. Threats

In order to comply with JPL Ethics policies:

1. Position and work assignments at JPL, why this will not conflict with role in New Venture
2. How New Venture will comply with JPL Rules for Outside Activities (Doc ID 58718)
3. New Ventures customers (or potential customers) that JPL is also doing business with, why there is no conflict
4. New Venture licensing technology that JPL is working with its business partners on, and why there is no conflict

Financials (as applicable):

1. New Venture has raised $_____ through the sale of [common shares, preferred shares, debt]
2. New Venture received the following government awards:
3. Brief revenue and expense projections (don't forget marketing and selling costs)
4. Milestones necessary to achieve future financing rounds at an increased valuation